

Baby's First Massage

Integrative Medicine announces training for anyone interested in becoming certified as a Newborn Baby Massage Instructor.

Marcia Rothwell, Director of Integrative Medicine, is the Certification coach for Connecticut and will be offering certification sessions here at Hartford Hospital.

Baby's First Massage is an independent study program consisting of two parts:

Part 1:

The Independent Study Kit includes an Instructors Manual, teaching booklet, a training video, a welcome packet and marketing material. You will read and watch these materials, then complete a post-test and teaching outline. You are now ready to attend a certification session.

*Cost for the study kit:
$150.00:*

Part 2:

The Certification Session is a half-day class designed to provide hands-on experience, answer questions, demonstrate proper technique, discuss marketing strategy and provide additional pertinent information and support.

*Cost for the coaching session:
$45.00*

Certification sessions will take place at Hartford Hospital
